Meeting called to order—7:00 P.M. by vice President Dan Hodges

15 present at the meeting

Minutes as sent by e-mail—Joe Tonso made a motion to approve the minutes, 2nd by Bill Spicer—Motion passed.

Treasure Report—Ralph Stewart—Jenn Tonso made motion to approve Treasure Report, 2nd by Dave Bray—Motion passed.

Trail Report—Ralph Stewart & Joe Tonso—Joe Tonso and Dan Miller checked on parking lot at Wilderness Ranch. There is a 60 foot County Road right of way. May need to find other parking. Joe has been trying to contact Stanley Peroulis to get permission to use the existing parking lot. Stanley has not responded to Joe's phone calls. Last spring Stanley stated that he would not allow the use of the parking lot. Will try to get some signage on the Wilderness Ranch road if cannot get an agreement with Stanley Peroulis.

Discussion on trails and trees that may need to be cut. Some are marked, Steve McCone from Route Forest Service was at meeting and said he would help with the trees.

CSA Report—Jenny Tonso—No Report—Jenn Thanked all that helped sell Raffle Tickets. Club Thanked Joe and Jenn for their work on the Raffle Tickets.

Groomer Report—Joe Tonso

Ground Work at groomer barn—Randy Watson has done dirt work, he was going to get the gravel, but the gravel pit was closed because of the snow. He will do it next spring.

Joe is still waiting on Prinoth on groomer. He said they told him that they had just started working on it. There is some problem with the deck. Joe will contact Joe Clark at Prinoth. Joe thought maybe it would be delivered later this week. Need training when cat is delivered.

Controls are different than old cat. It was decided to wait to have Randy Watson cut wings down until the groomer is delivered.

Old Business:

Dave Bray had a copy of the Snowmobile Brochure & map. They will be printed 12/05/2018. He thinks the cost will be covered by the Tourism Board. Club Thanked Dave for all of his work.

Trailhead/You Are Here Signs: Black Mtn and Freeman Trailhead signs are ready to go. Joe will take care of the Wilderness Ranch Trailhead Sign. Ralph, Brad, and Joe have the necessary maps for their You Are Here signs.

Annual Grooming Clinic—Joe & Jenn Tonso

There were 50 present at the clinic. All went well.

Avalanche Training-- 01/12/2019—Scheduled with State Parks at Freeman Trail Head at 9:30 A.M (it is free) Bring Beacons, Poles, Shovels & your Snowmobiles. Dan will check with Seth at Craig Power Sports on getting Beacons at cost.
